The screenshot shows the GitHub homepage. At the top, a light blue banner contains the text "Learn Git and GitHub without any code!" and "Using the Hello World guide, you'll create a repository, start a branch, write comments, and open a pull request." Below this banner are two buttons: "Read the guide" (green) and "Start a project" (white with a blue border). A blue arrow points from the text "「Start a project」 をクリック" to the "Start a project" button. Below the banner, there are several sections: "GitHub Universe" (October 16-17 in San Francisco), "Our new Terms of Service and Privacy Statement are in effect.", "Repositories" (with a "New repository" button), and "Browse activity" (with a "Discover repositories" link). The "Repositories" section shows a message: "You don't have any repositories yet!".
